

YACHT TEARS DOWN FENCES AND A HOUSE, BLOCKS BRONX TRAFFIC

Made in Little Yard, It Creates
Havoc Before Builders
Get It Out.

A cruising motor yacht, which upset traffic conditions in the Bronx by blocking Third avenue, Elton avenue and One Hundred and Fifty-third street at various and sundry times at about 5 o'clock last evening, will not be launched for three weeks. The boat is ready, but the builders of the boat, Frank J. Kinsler, plumber, of No. 678 Elton avenue, back of whose home the craft was built, and his young nephew, B. Nora, of No. 33 East One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, are quarrelling as to the girl's name to be placed on the bow. Mr. Kinsler wants to name her after his mother; the young man wants to name her after somebody else.

The building of the ship has kept several blocks of the Bronx excited for three years. The backyard of No. 678 Elton avenue for that period has been, to all intents and purposes, a public shipyard. The keel was laid on Lincoln's birthday, 1910. The plans were prepared from studies made by Mr. Kinsler and Mr. Nora from catalogues benevolently contributed to them by exhibitors of the motorboat show of the year before. They first planned to build the ship in the basement of their apartment house, but abandoned this scheme when they realized that in order to get it out they would have to tear down the house. So they compromised by building it under a tent in the backyard.

Hence the near riots and blocking of the streets and a great tearing down of fences and a house yesterday. Mr. Kinsler made a contract with a truckman "to move and boat from the rear of the premises at No. 678 Elton avenue to a spot on the shore of Long Island Sound at or near Throggs Neck, to be more exactly specified on arrival in the vicinity of that place."

The ultimate destination wasn't particularly interesting to the contractor. He discovered to his horror that he was confronted with the problem of moving a boat fifty-two feet over all and forty-two feet on the waterline, weighing six tons and having a beam of ten feet, out of a back yard surrounded by high fences and not very much bigger than the boat itself.

To turn the boat around and head it toward One Hundred and Fifty-third street it was necessary to take down the partition fence between the yard and those behind Nos. 671 and 673 Elton avenue. The one-story house on One Hundred and Fifty-third street was raised and a truck was backed into the scene of wreckage and the big boat backed aboard. Four teams of horses were hitched to the truck, and by the time the high freeboard of the white cruiser was poked out into One Hundred and Fifty-third street there were thousands of spectators.

Forsyth Little owes $586,507. Forsyth Little, the lawyer, against whom a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by creditors a short time ago, filed schedules to-day in the United States District Court declaring his liabilities to be $586,507, all unsecured, and assets amounting to $307,184, of which $11,445 is in cash. Little's fortunes are said to have been wrecked in the Stocking pool.

MAKES YOUR BACKACHE VANISH, DRIVES ALL RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY

New Discovery Eases Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints and Muscles,
Relieving Backache and Bladder Disorders
After Few Doses Are Taken

No matter how badly you suffer, how chronic your case may be, or what has failed to cure you, your pains will leave, your aches vanish and the torturous, killing backache or rheumatism will bother you no more. This is what Crozone, the new scientific discovery, does for sufferers of such troubles. It cures these diseases because it reaches the cause and removes it. It soaks right into the walls and linings of the kidneys and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive organs like water does a sponge—neutralizes and dissolves every particle of uric acid and makes the kidneys sit from the blood all the waste matter and poisons that lodge in the joints and muscles to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism. It soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder and leaves the kidneys in a clean, strong, healthy condition.
